A BUNCH OF MUNSCH SERIES

The Paper Bag Princess & 2 Other Stories

The Paper Bag Princess

Elizabeth has always had her eye on Ronald, the "perfect" prince next door. So when a dragon captures Ronald and burns Elizabeth's classy wardrobe in the process - it's Elizabeth to the rescue! Elizabeth, dressed only in a paper bag, must find a way to outwit the dragon and rescue Ronald. On the way, Elizabeth learns just how self-reliant a princess can be, and finds out that her prince isn't as perfect as he seems!

The Boy in the Drawer

Shelley is a very tidy girl. So just imagine her dismay when she finds a mischievous gnome in her sock drawer after school one day. The gnome loves to make a mess and since Shelley's parents don't seem to notice, it's up to her to put a stop to it!

Murmel, Murmel, Murmel

Robin hears a strange sound from the bottom of the sandbox: "murmel, murmel, murmel". So she reaches in and pulls out a real, live, baby! Robin's much too young to keep the baby herself, so she sets out to find a good parent for it!

THE BUSY WORLD OF RICHARD SCARRY

These fully animated programs are based on the books by Richard Scarry which parents worldwide rely on to teach valuable lessons. Busytown is an enchanting place that's abuzz with energy and life. Young audiences love to sing and laugh along, as Huckle Cat and Lowly Worm make their way through the day. Always concerned for each other, the residents of Busytown make time for a song and a smile.

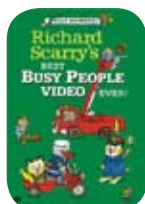

Richard Scarry's Best ABC Video Ever!

A delightful tool to help kids learn their letters, Richard Scarry's Best ABC Video Ever finds Busytown pals Huckle and Lowly Worm discovering that it's Alphabet Day at school. Their teacher, Miss Honey, invites her students to join in a spirited rendition of "The Alphabet Song." Next comes a series of 26 vignettes developed around each letter and cleverly intertwined with Sergeant Murphy's investigation into the mystery of some stolen bananas. Simple, sweet, and as entertaining as it is instructive, this production exemplifies the great care put into the Richard Scarry video series.

Richard Scarry's Best Busy People Video Ever!

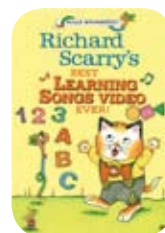

Huckle, Lowly Worm, and the rest of the school children are inspired by their teacher's discussion about different kinds of occupations and what people in those fields do all day. The kids run to the schoolyard for some make-believe, playing at what they'd like to be when they grow up. Huckle becomes a grocer like his father, Freddie Fox a baker specializing in mud pies, and Rhonda Raccoon a truck driver delivering baked goods. Consistent with the usual excellence of the Richard Scarry video series, Best Busy People introduces the concept of how a complicated society functions, with everyone's job having an impact on everyone else's.

Richard Scarry's Best Counting Video Ever!

Lily Bunny practices counting by starting with herself as one, then working her way through her Busytown neighborhood until she counts 10 hatching chicks at Farmer Fox's farm. But the stakes rise when Lily's parents suggest she go for 11 through 20. This takes the help of Huckleberry Cat and Lowly Worm, and some adventures involving balloons, grocery store trips, and the like. The numerals appear on the screen each time Lily counts, and she recaps in song after counting to 10 and then to 20, making it easy for young counters to follow along. Richard Scarry's classic animated characters provide a fun and educational program for kids ages 2 to 5.

Richard Scarry's Best Learning Songs Video Ever!

A painless way of learning a few things about shapes, numbers, letters, opposites, and good manners, Best Learning Songs Video Ever is an engaging treat for young kids who love music.

The story finds Huckle Cat and his buddies putting on a backyard variety show that draws the entire town as an audience. With Huck as master of ceremonies and Lowly Worm as stage manager, the children of Busytown entertain their families and friends with tunes about the fundamentals of an education. Besides Hilda Hippo's ABC song, there's Oly Owl's melody about shapes, and Alex and Anna's song about opposites. There's much more, including a couple of golden oldies such as "If You're Happy and You Know It."

Richard Scarry's Best Sing-Along Mother Goose Video Ever!

A great way to introduce or underscore the value of Mother Goose, this video uses a simple story about Huckle Cat's search for his missing friend Lowly Worm as a platform for enjoying the famous rhymes. While his mother sings lullabies, Huck wishes on a star that he could find Lowly soon, a wish that carries over into his subsequent dream of traveling through Mother Gooseland. There he meets familiar characters - Old King Cole, Little Miss Muffett, Little Bo Peep - who sing their own rhymes. It's Old King Cole who sends Huck directly to Mother Goose for help. This is a good program for assorted ages. Toddlers are easily enchanted by the cadence and rhymes of Mother Goose material, while the 2-to-5-year-old set can enjoy the story, too. The rest of us can appreciate the wonderfully busy animation and the touching tale of a boy's search for his friend.

Captain Willy & the Pirates / Young Vikings

Captain Willy & The Pirates

A class lesson comes to life as Huckle and his classmates learn about the Olden Days of Busytown: when Captain Willy took on a gang of mouse pirates who steal his lunch. Captain Willy disguises himself as the legendary Monster of Busy Bay - scaring the pirates into the ship's hold where he locks them in and then hands them over to Constable Murphy.

Young Vikings

Inspired by Father Cat's memories of when he played Viking on a raft, Huckle, Lowly, and Sally decide to build him a raft just like the old days. But when the raft gets swept up on the river with Huckle and Lowly aboard, Sally must choose between keeping a surprise, or fessing up to what happened.

The First Halloween Ever / The Snowstorm

The First Halloween Ever

A long long time ago, people were afraid of the ghosts and goblins that live in the forest, so when a young man and his wife get lost, they are very afraid, but they turn the tables on the ghost and goblins by putting on spooky costumes and scaring them right back. Except the ghosts and goblins they scare are really the villagers who've come looking for their friends. In the end, they all decide they've found a wonderful new tradition: dressing up and saying... Boo!

The Snowstorm

Hilda's the new playground monitor but because of her strength she's afraid she might hurt one of the little kids. When a snowstorm hits Busytown and the school bus gets stuck in a ditch, Hilda uses her strength to save her friends - and realizes it's not so bad being big and strong after all.
